Low-Cost Safe Deposit Boxes at PFCU

Safe deposit boxes are a good place to keep any personal items that would cause you to say, "If I lose this, I am in deep trouble!" Protect your important things with a safe deposit box at the Credit Union - once that heirloom jewelry, stamp collection, or family photo is lost or stolen, it's too late.

What items should go into a safe deposit box? Important papers such as originals of your insurance policies; family records such as birth, marriage, and death certificates; original deeds, titles, mortgages, leases and other contracts; stocks, bonds and certificates of deposit (CDs). Other valuables include special jewels, medals, rare stamps and other collectibles, negatives for irreplaceable photos, and videos or pictures of your home's contents for insurance purposes (in case of theft or damage).

It is usually recommended that when you open a safe deposit box that you give someone else access to the box, this person is called a deputy. You can have one deputy or multiple deputies. This person(s) will have access to the safe deposit box with or without you. Also, don't put original copies of legal documents in a safe deposit box if they will be needed by anyone who cannot gain access to these documents. You can always put "copies" of legal documents in the safe deposit box.

Start protecting your important items today and open a safe deposit box at the Credit Union. There is a refundable key deposit. See the box sizes and pricing below:

Lighten Your Credit Burden with a Consolidation Loan

It's easy to be lulled into making the minimum payments on your credit cards. But take a closer look at your statement to see what you could actually end up paying and how long it will take you to settle the score if you do so - and that's without making any additional charges. If you have balances on multiple credit cards, that's a heavy burden to face. And beware of making a late payment, or it will cost you even more in penalties - a late payment fee and the interest rate may skyrocket.

A Consolidation Loan from Postal Family Credit Union can lighten the load. With a credit union Consolidation Loan, we can help you pay off those high interest credit cards. Plus, you'll only have one payment to make every month, a payment that you can put on autopilot so you won't mistakenly forget it. So don't wait a minute more, call on us today to ask about a Consolidation Loan.
