

Happy Retirement Charlene!

Congratulations on your Retirement Charlene

Charlene Kornmann is officially retired as of January 29th. Hopefully you had time to come in and visit with Char on her last day at PFCU. Char has been with PFCU for 30 years, so she probably waited on you at her window, or possibly opened your account with the credit union, helped you with the purchase of a certificate or got you through all that IRA paperwork. Char is an avid Bearcats football fan. We dubbed her “Queen Charlene” for her last official day. She ruled the lobby and even had a crown. We all wish Char many, many happy years of retirement!

Charlene Kornmann, 30 years with the credit union.

Tax Time Again, Tax Day is Monday, April 15, 2013

You must submit your 2012 tax forms electronically or have them postmarked by Monday, April 15, 2013. But even if you wait until the last moment to file your taxes, there are three things you can do right now to lessen the stress.

1. Get a set of folders or large envelopes and label them for your various tax documents. As you receive tax information from your employer, the Credit Union and any other financial institutions, any investments you hold and so on, place them in the appropriate folder.
2. Make a folder for possible tax deductions as well. Go through your year's receipts and pull out those related to real estate taxes, charitable donations, medical expenses, etc., and place them in the folder. Dig out your 2010 return to help you remember what you claimed previously.
3. If you are eligible, contribute to your Individual Retirement Account. You have until tax day to do so, but the sooner the better. Because the interest is accumulating tax free, you will want to maximize the time you have your money tucked away for retirement. For complete details, contact your tax advisor.
